NARRATIVE

On 10/13/2018 at approximately 1846 hours, Sergeant Singh #1115 and I were in full SFPD police uniform and responded to [REDACTED] regarding a protest. We parked our patrol vehicle on Mission Street mid block between New Montgomery and 3rd St. We were able to hear the loud drumming noise coming from the direction of 3rd street.

Upon arrival, Sergeant Singh and I observed approximately 10 protesters who were standing and sitting on the sidewalk playing with numerous musical instruments, in front of the [REDACTED]. Some of the musical instruments were drums, megaphones, and large empty water bottles, etc. We attempted to speak to the protester in charge, who identified himself as (S1) [REDACTED].

Due to the extreme loud noise of the above instruments along with sirens from the protesters' megaphones, [REDACTED] was unable to hear what we said. As a result, [REDACTED] asked us to step away from the protesters in order to talk. Sergeant Singh and I advised [REDACTED] that the protesters can continue their protest, but the noise was too loud that it was disturbing the peace of the residents in other nearby buildings. As we were speaking to [REDACTED], an (R/V) unidentified citizen walked up to us and said he lived in the apartment building across Mission Street [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] (R/V) stated that the noise generated by the protesters were so loud that he could hear it from inside of his apartment. (R/V) also asked [REDACTED] to stop the noise. [REDACTED] then advised (R/V) that he would have to contact Marriott management.

Sergeant Singh and I repeatedly advised [REDACTED] that he could exercise his first amendment rights without violating other people's rights. [REDACTED] was unable to provide any permits regarding setting up live bands on the public sidewalk. [REDACTED] stated that he would contact his lawyer who in turn will contact our Captain. Sergeant Singh and I both provided [REDACTED] with our names and SFPD star numbers. [REDACTED] subsequently went to his fellow protesters and asked them to stop playing the drums.

(R/V) walked away from us before we could get any further information or statements. Sergeant Singh and I both activated our (BWC) Body Worn Camera during the incident and later uploaded the footage to evidence.com.
